

RUSSIA FACES CABINET CRISIS

THREE RESIGN FROM MINISTRY AFTER DISPUTE

Policy to Be Followed in the Ukraine New Bone of Contention

PREMIER LYOFF SEEKS TO PATCH UP AFFAIRS

Retiring Officials Declare Representatives of New Regime Exceeded Authority

Petrograd, July 17.—Three members of the cabinet have resigned, and a special session of the council of the ministers has been convened to avert a crisis. Their names are:

- A. I. Shingarov, minister of finance;
- Prof. Manuiloff, minister of education;
- Prince Shakhovsky, head of the department of public aid.

The resignations followed a sharp disagreement over questions involving the Ukraine, an extensive region in Russia embracing parts of the territory of the old kingdom of Poland.

Consider Dispute.

Premier Lyoff has requested the ministers to meet at his private residence, when the cause of the dispute will be considered. It is known he will attempt to prevail on them to withdraw their resignations. The break in the ministry occurred last night at a ministerial conference called to consider a report submitted by M. Tereshchenko, minister of foreign affairs; M. Terull, minister of posts and telegraph of the result of their negotiations concerning the Ukrainians.

Usurped Power.

After the report was made the ministers promptly took exception to a form of declaration drawn up by Tereshchenko and T. Seretelli and agreed to the facts that these ministers, without the authorization of the government, took it upon themselves to commit the government to a definite policy regarding the Ukraine. Tereshchenko and Seretelli, it was maintained, simply had been chosen delegates to the Ukraine, but had not been given the power of making a declaration in the name of the government. They insisted that their ad hoc position in regard to the declaration was not to be taken as objecting to the principle of autonomy for the Ukraine, but that their party is in full sympathy. Their protest, they repeated, was against the method whereby the declaration was drawn up by two members of the government acting without authority from the council of ministers and the wording of which was ambiguous and misleading.

Minister of Commerce Resigns.

London, July 17.—A Reuters dispatch from Petrograd says M. Stepanov, minister of commerce, also has resigned.

Two Demonstrations.

Petrograd, July 17.—Two demonstrations against the government resulted in the firing of shots in the Nevsky prospect at midnight, the result of which was that a number of persons were killed or wounded.

The firing apparently was the result of stray shots which brought on a panic, in which the demonstrators turned rifles and machine guns on each other. Quiet was restored after a few minutes. The demonstrations were organized by the Bolsheviks, the majority faction of the social-democratic party.

BAER LEAVES FOR WASHINGTON

Fargo, N. D., July 17.—John M. Baer, newly elected congressman from the First North Dakota district, left Monday night on Northern Pacific No. 8 for Washington, D. C. to take his seat in the house of representatives. Mrs. Baer and the two children will leave in about a week for the capital city, to join Mr. Baer, to reside during the session of congress.

En route to the capital, Mr. Baer will stop off one day in Appleton, Wis., for a visit with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. John M. Baer, Sr. continue from there directly to Washington. He expects to arrive in the capital Saturday morning.

Congressman Baer stated last night that he had not selected a secretary but is considering applications for the position.

Senate Is Favorable to Air Fleet

Reports Forty Million Appropriation for Aeroplanes for Passage at Once

WILL PUT MEASURE TO AN EARLY VOTE

Washington, July 17.—Another speed record in considering the $40,000,000 aviation program bill passed last Saturday by the house in five hours, was made today when the senate military committee in 45 minutes session recommended the bill with a favorable report. The committee decided not to hold hearings in order that the appropriation may become available as soon as passed. Leaders hope to reach an agreement to set aside the food bill and pass the aviation measure with brief debate.

Among the incidents suggested by the war department and which the committee today decided to postpone was one creating an aircraft production board. The committee believed such an amendment would develop complications regarding personnel and powers of the board, and that congressional action will be deferred.

STATE OUSTER EFFORT AGAINST SHAW IS BEGUN

Brennan and Watkins File Affidavits With Governor Frazier Attacking Mayor

50 LEADING BUSINESS MEN ARE TO TESTIFY

Minot, N. D., July 17.—The first step in the expected effort to remove W. S. Shaw, president of the city commission, was taken today when Assistant Attorney General Brennan and F. L. Watkins, superintendent of the State Enforcement league filed affidavits with Governor Frazier on conditions in Minot.

Brennan announced that a formal complaint against Shaw would be filed within a week. The governor will then appoint a referee if he deems the cause sufficient.

Hearing will be held in Minot. Brennan stated that in the removal proceedings he expects to use the testimony of 50 leading business men of Minot against President Shaw.

Indications are that there will be a big legal battle, as Shaw undoubtedly will fight to the last ditch.

Minneapolis, July 17.—Edmund Pennington, president of the Soo Line, tomorrow night will confer in Minot with state officials who have been in charge of the liquor law violations. The Soo head was recently summoned to answer a charge that the Soo Line had aided in the illegal sale of liquor at Minot after the bone dry law had become effective in the state.

BRITISH NAVY CAPTURES FOUR GERMAN BOATS

London, July 17.—The admiralty announces the capture of four German steamers by British destroyers in the North sea.

Two other German steamers were with the four captured vessels when the group was signaled by the British warcraft. All six made for the Dutch coast, and two of them reached the shore. These two were badly damaged by gunfire.

A Reuters dispatch from Ymuiden says four German ships have been sunk by British destroyers in the North sea, four captured, three stranded, and three forced to return to Rotterdam. Since Saturday 17 steamers have sailed from Rotterdam, three at a time, and 15 at another, the dispatch says. Of the first group, one vessel of 1,750 tons gross was wrecked off Vandevoort. Of the second group, owing to the action of the British destroyers, not one vessel was able to proceed, eight being captured or sunk and three succeeding in getting back to Rotterdam. Of the three remaining steamships which were stranded, two were afloat.

NOW COMPUTING NORTH DAKOTA'S COUNTY QUOTAS

Eight Men in Each Thousand Population Will Be State's Proportion of Draft

ONLY TEN STATES YET TO FILE THEIR REPORTS

All But 649 of 4559 Exemption Districts Heard From—Changes in Local Boards

Official advices from Washington today show that North Dakota's gross draft quota, based upon the new population estimates of 708,392, is 7,724. From the gross there are deducted 279 North Dakota men in federal service April 2, 1,486 as the total national guard enlistments up to June 30 and 353 federal enlistments up to June 30, or a total of 2,118 credits to which the state is entitled in Classes A, B and C. This leaves North Dakota's net quota 5,606 men, who are to be drawn from the state's net registration total of 64,459, or that out of every 11.5 men registered one eligible must be found for the selective service army.

Quotas Will Vary.

The proportion of the draft to the whole population is approximately 8 in 1,000, and county quotas will be largely based on such percentage, varying only as to credits for enlistments and exemptions in each county.

By order of the provost marshal general, each county exemption board must mail to the adjutant general's office another typewritten copy giving the draft numbers assigned in their serial order. This will enable the adjutant general's office to promptly check off each name as the number is drawn at Washington.

Changes in Board.

Dr. Brimmi of Griggs county, who has been commissioned in the medical reserve, has asked that he be excused from duty on the county exemption board, and authorities have recommended that Dr. Wesley be named in his place. John Hildebrand, county auditor of McIntosh fears that because he has one or more relatives in every township in that county his judgment may be biased, and asks that G. D. Grosz of Ashley be named in his stead.

Wine Regulations.

Company commanders today are wiring to the central department equipment needs and are filing copies of their regulations with the adjutant general's office. Capt. Tom Loney of Devils Lake advises General Frazier that he had 125 men quartered in a hotel on the chautauqua grounds last night, with a caterer under contract to feed them at 75 cents the day and that by night he will be recruited to full war strength.

ONLY TEN YET OUT.

Washington, D. C., July 17.—With only 10 states remaining to be heard from the organization of the local exemption boards and with the serial number lists of registrants from all but 649 of the 4,559 exemption districts on file at Washington, Provost Marshal General Crowder was hopeful today that the preliminary stages of the drafting would be completed within 48 hours. He prepared to take up with Secretary Baker later in the day details of the lottery process for final approval.

Drafting Friday.

If there is no unexpected delay, it seems likely that the drawing can be held Friday or Saturday. A single district, which failed to finish its preliminary work on time, however, can hold up action indefinitely.

Once past drafting day, General Crowder pointed out today the necessity for concerted action by the state forces and the examination of the registrants and their assignments to the army or exemption, can proceed in any state without regard to progress made in any other community.

No Comment or Criticism.

General Crowder declined to make any comment on the statement made yesterday in the senate attacking the fairness of the census bureau population estimates on which the allotments of quotas under the draft law is based.

To Draft Only.

Other officials pointed out, however, that the revised estimates of the census bureau were not intended to fix the actual population of any community. The estimates are prepared with the statement that they are for use in connection with the draft only. They are based upon registration and represent the distribution over the country of men between the ages fixed in the draft law as liable for military service. Large figures for many of the cities are accounted for by the concentration of the men of draft age in working in munition plants.

MAY LOAN FIVE BILLION TO ENTENTE

Congress Expected to Authorize Another Large War Credit Before Adjournment

TO FINANCE PURCHASES MADE IN UNITED STATES

McAdoo Discusses Plan for Flotation With Eastern Reserve Bank Heads

Washington, July 17.—Unless the unforeseen develops, congress probably will be asked before adjournment of the present session to authorize another gigantic loan to the Allies. The present authorization of $3,000,000,000 will be exhausted within from three to four months, at the rate at which the government is lending money to Entente governments.

Indications are that the amount of the second authorization will be no less than the first and may go as high as $5,000,000,000.

There is every reason to believe that the administration policy of financing the allied governments for purchases they make in this country will be continued during the period of the war, and that the vast sums to be loaned them in the future will be loaned as in the past, at the same rate of interest the American government will have to pay for the money and on the security of Entente government bonds.

While no official announcement has been made of what the government intends to do, it is believed that the loan of $3,000,000,000 is exhausted, it is shown that nearly one-half of the $3,000,000,000 already has been exhausted, the amount totaling $1,303,000,000, and this covers the financing of only two months and 20 days.

Plans for the coming $5,000,000,000 Liberty loan, which Secretary McAdoo is expected to announce in a few days, was discussed here today with the governors of the 12 federal reserve banks. The governors at Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago, Cleveland, Richmond and New York were invited to attend the conference. The purpose of the meeting was said to be arranged for the details for the flotation of the coming loan, which, it was predicted, would require more labor than the first campaign. It is proposed that in each federal district a loan committee be organized, with the governor of the federal reserve bank of that district as chairman.

It was said two methods would be used to float the coming loan and that some efforts have proved successful in Great Britain would be adopted.

MANY WITNESSES ATTEND FEDERAL JURY SESSION

Fargo, N. D., July 17.—More witnesses have been subpoenaed to appear before the federal grand jury meeting in Fargo this morning, than have ever appeared before a federal grand jury in the North Dakota district.

Full information regarding the matter to be presented to the jury has not been made public, but enough is known to justify the statement that the session is to be the most important of mere information that any previously called to the attention of the federal grand jury will be presented, it is said. Some of them are of a nature that has never before been presented in the local district.

Alleged violations of federal laws relating to interstate liquor shipments constitute one branch of cases that will claim the attention of the jury. Forty witnesses have been subpoenaed from Minot, and the jury will be asked, it is expected to investigate reports that wholesale shipments of liquor have been made to that place in violation of the federal liquor shipment laws.

The grand jury will probably be in session for two weeks. Government officials said yesterday.

D. K. Brightbill of Grand was elected foreman of the federal grand jury at the opening of the federal court here today. Many important cases are on the calendar for the coming term.

BERLIN STIRRED BY CRISIS OVER PEACE PLANS

Former Chancellor Hollweg Poses as Champion of Popular Reforms

CROWN PRINCE WINS BATTLE FOR AUTOCRACY

Amsterdam, July 17.—The events of the past few days have stirred Berlin as the city has not been stirred since the war began, according to information here.

The man in the street took tremendous interest in the great political battle going on behind the scenes and the "common people" quickly gained the impression that Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, as champion of popular reforms, had entered the lists against the emperor, the crown prince, Field Marshal von Hindenburg and General Ludendorff.

It was almost the first time that von Bethmann-Hollweg had figured in the Berlin streets as a popular hero and, although his cause had many friends, popular opinion regarded his effort as hopeless against the great prestige of the royal house, allied with the military imperialists, von Hindenburg and Ludendorff.

Von Bethmann-Hollweg's chief support in this brief effort for democracy seems to have come from Bavaria and Austria, as the report goes, first that in the direction of democratization, a new body under the name of the Reichsrat should be immediately constituted which would be a sort of committee on national defense, and would for the time being act as a go-between 'twixt the Reichstag and the emperor, thus instituting on a modified scale the principle of parliamentary responsibility, the second, that the government should immediately make an authoritative declaration of no annexations or indemnities. Both these proposals it is asserted, had the backing of Bavaria and Austria.

Both proposals were violently opposed by the crown prince, von Hindenburg and Ludendorff. It is declared that von Hindenburg came out openly for a German peace, and avowed that Bavaria and Austria must be persuaded that a victorious peace was certain in a short time through the agency of the U-boats.

Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg resigned from his post of chancellor after his conference with the crown prince in which the latter convinced the chancellor that his cause was lost.

REED SCORES HOOVER IN FOOD DEBATE

Says He Is Out of Touch With Conditions in America Today

CONFERENCES ARE HELD TO SMOOTH OUT DIFFERENCES

Washington, D. C., July 17.—A wrangle over President Wilson's appointment of Herbert C. Hoover as food commissioner, occupied virtually all of yesterday's debate in the senate on the food control bill, but meantime considerable progress on compromise amendments was made in bi-partisan conferences.

Reach Compromise.

Senators today virtually concluded their task of drafting compromise amendments to the administration food control bill and debate was continued with the prospect of voting late today or tomorrow. The compromise agreement, it is believed, commands support from the majority of the senate.

The creation of a board of food administration, in lieu of a single individual, composed of three members directed under the president's control is the principal change to be proposed by the leaders. Other important changes agreed upon today at the bi-partisan conference were for fixing by congress of a minimum price of $1.75 per bushel for wheat, an extension of the government licensing and food purchasing powers in the bill. It previously had been agreed to limit government control of foods seeds and fuels including gasoline and kerosene.

For more than two hours Senator Reed criticized Mr. Hoover, declaring his residence abroad had kept him out of touch with American ideals. The instructions prepared by Mr. Hoover for housewives of the country were ridiculed by the Missouri senator in a sarcastic attack which caused laughter in the chamber and galleries and necessitated frequent calls for order.

Commenting on the advice against eating a fourth meal Senator Reed said the average American is happy to get three. A food administrator he asserted instead of spending his time saving piecrusts by not putting tops on tarts should be planning for the creation of great warehouses to hold the vast crops which are to be harvested this year.

Senator Phelan replied defending the food administrator as a patriotic and efficient official.

He pointed out that during his speech the Missouri senator had not denounced the food administration's ability or impeached his integrity. The democratic and republican leaders agreed in their conference upon

FRENCH HAVE SUCCESS IN VERDUN REGION

American Collier Comes to Defense of Attack Upon St. Michaels

BOMBARD ST. MICHAELS.

An Atlantic Port, July 17.—The bombardment of St. Michaels in the Azores on July 12, by a German submarine was at first thought to be a Fourth of July celebration by American naval ships in port, said the captain of a British steamship from Lisbon and St. Michaels, which arrived here today. The fire began early in the morning, but as the shells commenced to explode over the city the illusion that it was part of an independence day program was quickly dispelled.

An American collier in port returned the submarine's fire with such precision and volume that the undersea craft soon submerged. The captain, who was an eyewitness of the fight, said the U-boat was 300 feet long and carried two guns. One girl and one man were killed in St. Michaels by the shells.

(By Associated Press.)

The Russian armies are continuing their vigorous offensive in eastern Galicia and other groups of the empire's massed forces are apparently ready to spring into activity at various points along the 800-mile front.

Everything appears to be running smoothly with the military machine, or at least it seems in far more effective shape than even the rosiest forecast indicated.

Meanwhile Russian governmental affairs, which appear to have been going well for some time past, are again confronted with a cabinet disagreement.

Still in Revolt.

Notwithstanding the change in the German chancellorship and before any change of policy had been made by any occupants of the post, Dr. George Michaelis, the Reichstag revolt against existing conditions appears to be going on unchecked. The majority in favor of peace terms, it is declared, will present their resolutions Thursday, the day the new chancellor is scheduled to seat, and will demand that he accept the declaration before they agree to co-operate with him.

Success at Verdun.

An important success has been won by the French in the Verdun region. As the result of an attack last night all positions west of Hill No. 304, which remained in German hands after the attack of June 29 and 30, were recovered. German prisoners to a number not yet ascertained by the French high command, were taken in the action. In the Champagne the Germans made another attack last night in an attempt to regain their losses, at observation positions. General Petain's troops repelled the assaulting forces in disorder.

A moment later she was pumping steel-shot bullets into the vicinity of the bandit. The third shot took effect in the shoulder, damaging his arm. But he managed to nick Miss Bertha in the right wrist, knocking the gun from her hand. The bandit had had enough, however, and he dashed from the house, leaping on his horse and beat it for the foothills. Posses scoured the country as soon as the wounded girl could reach a neighbor's home and give the alarm, but no trace of the robber could be found.

Company in Second

Minot, N. D., July 17.—The confidence members of Minot's A company, Second regiment, North Dakota national guard, had in the leadership of Major A. S. Blakey of this city was clearly demonstrated last evening when the men unanimously elected him to the office of captain of "the pride of the Smashing Second." Word was received in the city late yesterday afternoon from the adjutant general's office at Bismarck that A company would be organized within an hour and the men who have taken the lead in the organization of the new company immediately rounded up a large number of the men and the election resulted in Major Blakey being elected captain, William O'Leary, first lieutenant, and Joseph Blaisdell, second lieutenant. This list of officers was wired to the adjutant general's office, but word was sent back to the effect that the state military authorities could not ratify the appointment of Major Blakey as captain in view of his age. His many years of service in the regular army and in the national guard as well as the confidence in his leadership so unanimously expressed by the vote of the men, spoke very highly for Major Blakey's ability, but the state military authorities explained that younger men were being given the commissions.

Give Your Teeth Exercise

HARD crusty, and fibrous foods give the teeth work to do, and are in a measure tooth cleansers. The teeth need exercise just as much as any other part of the body.

The chief cause of tooth decay is the use of soft pulpy foods which cling to the teeth and ferment.

That's why you need to use a dentifrice which is first and always an efficient cleanser. S. S. White Tooth Paste is the best and most scientific combination of active cleansing agents on the market. It is made by the world's best known makers of dental equipment and supplies according to a non-secret formula determined by eminent dental authority.

"It Rained on My Puppy," Youngster's Only Complaint
After Night in Badlands

Beach, N. D., July 17.—A searching party including two young ladies of the Beach Red Cross unit, with first aid kits, tramped all the night through the Bad Lands seeking little Teddy Taunt, borne away into the dusk by a runaway team which bolted just as the little fellow's father and mother descended from the wagon here.

The trail led up hill and down, scrambling up steep bluffs and slithering down jagged precipices, through such fantastic convolutions as only the Bad Lands can produce. The wagon had shed nuts, burs, bolts, groceries and other paraphernalia, everything but one small boy, and a poodle puppy, which he had clasped in his arms when the horses started their mad dash.

In the morning the searchers were relieved by a fresh posse of 50 Beach people, who were organized in skirmish formation, dragging the hills for two miles on each side of the trail.

And finally, trudging along after a wagon, his puppy hugged tight to his breast, barefoot, bedraggled, but all boy, he was discovered 2 1/2 miles from his home, at Westminster.

"They haven't found me yet," said the little man, as the first of the searching party reached him.

"The wagon tipped over and it rained on my puppy," was the only other comment he had to make on his wild night ride.

PEMBINA COUNTY
CARDS ON WAY TO COMPLETE LISTS

Next Step in Preparation for Draft Is to "Dope Out"
Quotas for State

Pembina county's registration cards, which were mailed last Friday, are on their way to the adjutant general's office to complete the second step preliminary to the drafting of North Dakota's section of the select service army.

The county registration boards have performed two important tasks—the registration of all of the eligibles within their jurisdiction and the proper numbering of the registration cards and listing of each registrant.

The Next Step.
The next step will be taken in the adjutant general's office when Charles Leissman, in charge of this detail, undertakes the important task of figuring out each county's quota. Blanks for this purpose were mailed from Washington last week, and should reach the adjutant general's office today or tomorrow. Upon their receipt, the department will have exact information as to the state's quota, and then will proceed to apportion this quota among the 53 counties. In doing this, note must be made of all the credits and known exemptions to which each county is entitled.

Mail by the Sale.
Bags and bags of mail matter are accumulating at the adjutant general's office more rapidly than it can be forwarded to the various county boards. There are bulletins, pamphlets, reports, forms and circulars galore. Some are designed for use here, others go direct to the registrants themselves, a majority of the printed matter is for the county and state exemption boards.

This literature tells all that anyone can ever hope to know about the machinery used in making the selective draft.

428 CANDIDATES FOR SECOND CAMP TO BE EXAMINED

Unusually Good Grade of Applicants Indicated by Number Designated

PRELIMINARY QUIZZING AT FARGO THIS WEEK

An unusually good grade of candidates for the second officers' training camp at Fort Riley is indicated by the fact that of 422 applicants, Major R. R. Steedman, examining officer for North Dakota, has held 128 for examinations, which will begin at Fargo, July 19. Three days will be spent at Fargo by Major Steedman and Lieutenant Hugo Melia of the medical reserve, who will make physical examinations. July 23 and 24 will be spent at Grand Forks; 25 and 26 at Devils Lake; 27 and 28 at Minot; 29 at Carrington; July 31 and August 1 at Jamestown; August 2, 3 and 4 at Bismarck; August 5 and 6 at Dickinson.

North Dakota's quota for the Fort Riley camp, opening the latter part of August, will be 111 men. The applications are very evenly divided throughout the state, and Major Steedman anticipates that every section will be represented in acceptances for the second camp.

T. A. Madden will accompany the examining officers as executive clerk, and J. P. Tucker as medical clerk. Candidates have been directed to report to the nearest examining station designated.

"AM I MY BROTHER'S KEEPER" SPIRIT OF THE HEATHEN WORLD

Rev. George E. Buzzelle Uses
World's First Homicide as Sermon Subject

The world's first homicide, the slaying of Abel by his brother, Cain, was made the subject of a strong sermon by Rev. George Buzzelle at St. George's church Sunday. Rev. Buzzelle used as his text: "Am I my brother's keeper?"—Gen. iv:9.

This question, first asked over the bleeding corpse of Abel, represents the general spirit of the heathen world. In that world every nation, every tribe, every class, lived for itself. A tribe or nation was bound together only by self-interest or force. Its religion was a part of its national furniture. Paganism as a religion did nothing to restore fellowship among men. True, some nations attempted a world empire, but it was an attempt to bring men into one society, held together by fear. The old world was a world without love. It had great institutions, an imposing civilization, a wonderful literature. Yet it was a world without love. The hospital was unknown; the orphanage undreamed of. Men might give, as they did give in Rome and elsewhere, great gifts. They might build theatres and baths and bestow largess of food. But it was not a charity. Liberal they might be, but charity seldom. Pagan liberality thought only of the giver. Christian charity thinks only of the recipient. It was only when Christ came that the real and efficient answer to this age-long question of protest was given. He came because He was his brother's keeper. He came to die on Calvary, and from the throne of His cross of wood He proclaimed to the world the answer.

"Abel's blood, for vengeance
Pleaded to the skies,
But the blood of Jesus
For our pardon cries."
It is not strange that a principle so ingrained in humanity's life should have persisted even after the Master's answer of love. It was found in the early church, almost in the shadow of the cross, as related in the second lesson for this morning. The Pharisees and others among the early converts objected to the gospel being proclaimed to the gentiles. They felt that they were not the keepers of these outcasts. No idea of brotherhood had entered into their philosophy. It persists in the church even now. We have but little interest in those of another race or station in life. Our love may go out to our kind, but the dirty, the uncouth, the ignorant of the world, are we responsible for them? And so the church's great mission is crippled and falls. Often in our church relation we inquire as to the good it may do us, and seldom of the good we may do others. The church needs to be strengthened to the uttermost, that she may cope with the powerful forces of evil, and that she may be truly an inspiration and an uplift. So she needs our interest, our help and our presence at the altars. Our brothers' every need, physical, mental, spiritual, should call strongly to our deepest interest and sympathy. Only so, by hearing and answering and seeking, shall we enter into the joy that was the Christ's. It is only as we know the truth of real brotherhood that we are able to comprehend the truth of the Fatherhood.

EMERGENCY COMMISSION ASKED TO HELP REGENTS

Transfer of Funds Would Give Board Members Something for Traveling Expense

The emergency commission, in session this afternoon, is asked to come to the rescue of the state board of regents by supplying a deficit in the item of traveling expense, resulting from Governor Frazier's vote of a $7,000 appropriation made for this purpose.

The regents can be taken care of by transferring an item in their appropriation appearing under the head of "salary and per diem of members" to a new fund, to be known as "salary and per diem of members and traveling expense." Unless this is done, board members must continue to travel to and from meetings and on their tours of inspection of educational institutions at their own expense.

When the governor's new board of regents was commissioned members were immediately provided with vouchers for 2,000-mile mileage books, which, however, were never cashed in, through an objection on the part of the treasurer. The old board has not to date received as much consideration.

MANY ATTEND CONCERT BY COMBINED BANDS

Owing to the lateness of the evening limited train last evening, the Mandan band was unable to join with the local Elks' band in giving the Salvation Army benefit concert on the grounds near the Auditorium. However, the Salvation Army band gave its services and a most enjoyable concert resulted.

It is estimated that more than a thousand people thronged the vacant lot, The Army, which derived its benefit from the sale of refreshments, took in approximately $15, part of which will go to pay expenses for cream cones, soda pop and home-made candy were the refreshments.

PRATER SUCCEEDS HENRY; BROWN HEADS BOARD; LEWIS STICKS; REGENTS REMAIN

That W. J. Prater, as reported during the session last winter, succeeds Major Frank S. Henry as land commissioner; that James A. Brown of Rolla succeeds R. S. Lewis of Fargo as chairman of the state board of control; but that Lewis remains a member of that body, eliminating Bernt Anderson of Churchill, who declined to qualify; that George B. Wallace of Wahpeton succeeds Frank E. Packard of Valley City as chairman of the state tax commission; and that the board of regents, for the present, at least, is to remain unchanged, are interesting conclusions which may be drawn from an official directory of state officers, boards and commissions issued today under the official seal of State Auditor Carl Kositzky.

Down to Date.

The fact that the directory is brought down to date; that many of the changes have already been indicated and that others noted are plausible renders it less difficult to accept as official some of the changes which are rather sensational, such, for instance, as the deposing of Frank Packard as head of the state tax commission. The state auditor and the chairman of the state tax commission have not always been in perfect agreement as to where the official duties of one began and those of the other left off, but it is not to be presumed that Mr. Kositzky would decapitate Mr. Packard without official sanction. Although Commissioner Packard's nomination was not confirmed by the senate, he was reappointed by Governor Frazier in May for a six-year term which will be subject to review by the senate at the next assembly.

Charles Leismann, recently placed on the payroll of the state tax commission, is presently as deputy land commissioner, a position held by H. L. Simmons of Bismarck. Mr. Leismann formerly was an organizer for the Farmers' union. Recently he was on the secretary of state's staff.

The personnel of the state board of control is shown to be: James A. Brown, chairman; R. S. Lewis, Simon Nagel, secretary; Ernest Wanner, board of regents. The board of regents has made no announcement of the election of Mr. Brown to succeed Mr. Lewis, whose term was held by an opinion of the attorney general to have expired on June 18.

The board of regents membership is shown intact, Lewis S. Crawford, J. A. Power, Frank White, Emil Seow, S. D. Taylor, secretary, Charles Brewer.

The directory is fresh from the press and is down to date in every detail, giving the name of the new congressman from the First district and of boards appointed within the last few days.

State Auditor Kositzky could not be reached this afternoon, but a statement from his office was to the effect that Mr. Kositzky was personally responsible for the compilation of the directory and that the information contained therein had been verified.

COMMANDER OF REPUBLICAN ARMY IS NEW PREMIER

Peking, July 17.—Tuan Chi Jui, who commanded the republican forces which defeated the attempts to restore the monarchy has definitely assumed the premiership and has also taken over the war portfolio.

President Li Huan Hung has announced his decision not to resume office. He has entered the French capital and is under treatment for a slight internal complaint. It appears, however, that his resignation was induced not by illness, but by disturbing incidents at his residence early this morning. One of the guards ran amuck with a sabre, killed a colonel and two soldiers, and wounded a captain and a soldier.

changes in the bill, expected to command considerable support, including an amendment creating a board of food administration in lieu of one man control provided in the house measure.

Most of the leaders also agreed upon limiting the control legislation to food, feeds and fuels, the latter to include gasoline and kerosene, but a considerable senate following plans to insist upon the retention of government control of steel and iron and their products.

Another conference was held today with a meeting of the senate democratic steering committee planned later for final negotiations toward a complete compromise.

What is Going on in Germany

As Told by the Newspapers We Get From the Teutonic Empires and Neutral Nations.

VACATIONS MEAN MUCH

RED TAPE IN GERMANY
With the summer season on Berlin war regulations have been drawn, telling the rest-seekers what they must and must not do. German papers print the following government regulations:

"When you have selected your summerfrische (holidays) acquaint yourself without delay with food conditions there.

"Go to the food ministry several days before you leave and obtain 'travel food tickets'.

"Your 'travel bread ticket' will entitle you to bread away from home, but you will receive one-fourth pound less than in Berlin.

"You must hand in your Berlin potato and butter tickets to the police. The travel bread ticket will entitle you to potato and butter rations at destination.

"Take your imperial meat ticket; it is valid anywhere.

"You may keep your sugar ticket, but it will not procure you sugar. Take your own sugar with you.

"Berlin egg tickets are not valid elsewhere."

SOME WAR REGULATIONS

DON'T SUIT GERMANS
Not all the war regulations suit the Germans. The Berlin Zeitung am Mittag thus rails at one:

"It was a beautiful forenoon, and we were seated in the bright sunshine at Kranzler's taking a cup of coffee. There approached a lady, somewhere midway in the thirties, with her evidently more than 70-year-old mother. 'Come, mummy,' said the younger one, 'let us sit down and rest ourselves a little here in the pleasant sunshine.'

"They sat down. The waitress drew near, the ladies gave their orders, but stark and stiff the girl stood before them and gave utterance to the winged words: 'Ladies unaccompanied by gentlemen may not be served in this establishment.'

"Great commotion—both arose and withdrew. On her way out the younger of the two remarked: 'Shall I summon my husband out of the trenches so that I may be allowed to sit down here?'

"The table beside us remained empty. After a time there appeared a carefully groomed youth of indisputable military capacity, and with him a 'lady' of the lower world, whose good looks owed an unfathomable depth of gratitude to art. They quickly annexed the empty table and sat down. 'Ah,' we thought, 'that waitress will soon settle you.' The waitress came in, and in tones the most delicate imaginable Hebe inquired what it was the 'gracious lady' and 'chivalrous gentleman' desired. The next moment the coffee stood steaming in front of them.

"We paid our bill and left, wondering what could be the purpose of such absurd legislation which deprives the soldier's wife of refreshment while allowing it to the painted and bedizened companion of a well-dressed loafer."

FORMER MILWAUKEE LINE BRAKEMAN IS JIM VICTIM

Man Drowned at Jamestown Identified by Papers on His Person

Jamestown, N. D., July 17.—A man identified late yesterday afternoon as Lorenzo E. Doyle, about 25 years of age, of Birds Island, Minn., located 50 miles west of Minneapolis, on the Milwaukee road, was drowned in the James river at Horseshoe park, near the Fifth street bridge, about 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The victim was formerly employed as a brakeman on the Milwaukee road, according to letters and papers found in a suitcase owned by him, but it is said of late he has worked for the Jamestown Gas company here.

P. J. Landrigan of Alpena, Mich., was with Doyle at the time he met his unfortunate end. According to Mr. Landrigan the drowning man made no outcry, evidently being taken by cramps suddenly. He went down in about seven feet of water.

Chief of Police Obermiller, Night Officer Briggs and several others were called to the scene by Mr. Landrigan immediately and succeeded in locating the body. Dr. W. W. Wood was called, but he was already exhausted and his appendix removed to prevent complications from the kick of a horse, which pointed both feet in Vaughn's stomach. The colt's hoofs half severed the appendix, and the surgeons completed the job, saving the victim's life.

TOM CAN TELL HARRY ANYTHING, HE AS BACHELOR

Man Who Slew Sitting Bull Would Enlist in Effort to Get Kaiser

Red Tomahawk, captain of Indian police, and the man who fired the shot which put a end to the calumnious career of Sitting Bull, almost went yesterday, when advised by Capt. A. B. Welch of Co. 1 that his advanced age would preclude his realization of a cherished ambition to enlist with the Bismarck company in an effort to make it exciting for Kaiser Bill. Chief Tomahawk has read all about the Kaiser. He has him sized up as a sort of Sitting Bull of the Germans, a medicine man, not a warrior; a wizard who makes bad medicine for his people and keeps them in hot water.

If Red Tomahawk cannot go, there are plenty of stalwart Sioux who can and will. Captain Welch spent yesterday at Fort Yates, where a large number of applications were made. Among the braves who wish to serve with Co. 1 is Albert Grass, grandson of the famous Chief Justice John Grass. The aged chief justice, who was near death for months, now is much improved in health, and his grandson, a fine, strapping boy, can be spared. The only question as to his acceptance arises out of an unhealed wound which may cause trouble with the medical examiner.

A delegation of Sioux is expected in this week, accompanied by the agent, and those who pass the required examinations will remain as members of Co. 1.

The new Bismarck company now musters 50 men and new recruits are coming in daily. Tappen yesterday broke all known records by furnishing 22 recruits from a population of 150. Drilling will begin tomorrow. Requisitions have gone in for coats, blankets, arms and uniforms. Until this equipment comes, the boys are badly in need of spare coats, blankets and other little comforts. An occasional chance to sleep in a real bed would be appreciated. Banking on the bare floor of the armory without even a blanket is a trifle too much even for a soldier.

Captain Welch's clerical staff today is busied with reports. Everything required has gone in, and the company now awaits orders.

RED CROSS TELLS OF ORGANIZATION IN NORTH DAKOTA

First of Series in Publicity Campaign Being Distributed From Headquarters

JUDGE YOUNG NAMED DIRECTOR FOR STATE

The first of a series of Red Cross publicity letters or articles is being circulated. It tells of the North Dakota plan of organization and is being distributed from the North Dakota headquarters at Fargo, where offices are maintained in the Edwards building.

"The American Red Cross is the humanitarian arm of the United States government."

"The American Red Cross is the only volunteer society now authorized by the United States to render aid to its land and naval forces in time of war. Any other society desiring to render similar assistance can do so only through the American Red Cross."

"The demands made on the American Red Cross due to the present world's war made a simplification of its administrative plans necessary. Men expert and experienced in handling big enterprises have been drafted into service and placed in charge of the work."

"Under the new plans North Dakota has been detached from the mountain division, with headquarters at Denver, Colo., and attached to the central division, with headquarters at Chicago, Ill. J. J. O'Connor, Chicago, Ill., is director of the central division."

"Judge N. C. Young was named director for North Dakota, instructed to open headquarters in Fargo, and to install chapters provided for under the new regulations governing this state. Fifty-three chapters, one for each county, have its headquarters at the county seat, have general jurisdiction over the entire county, and be responsible for all Red Cross activities in that county."

"All present and future members of the American Red Cross residing in the county automatically become members of the chapter."

"Uniform by-laws have been prepared, under which the government of each chapter is vested in a board of directors and an executive committee. The officers of each chapter will be: chairman, vice-chairman, secretary and treasurer. The by-laws provide for appropriate committees, the establishing of branches within the county, and other details of organization."

"Chapters will be installed by the state director as rapidly as possible."

Leg Sore

A huge sore—very deep—full of foul discharge. Aged all day; no rest at night. Then used a few drops of Eucalypti Compound. D.D.D. irritation and pain gone. Sweet refreshing sleep at night. In due time, complete cure. We guarantee D.D.D. 25c, 50c and $1.00.

To make certain that there will be no conflict with the new regulations, no organization of a chapter should be attempted until after consultation with the director for North Dakota.

"Red Cross activities must not be suspended. Present and contemplated organizations will be brought into the chapter in an orderly way. Membership, work and campaign activities should be continued, and a careful record thereof kept."

"Harry Curran Wilbur of Fargo has been named executive secretary to assist the state director in carrying out the organization plans."

Council Meets.

The city council met in regular session at the city hall last evening, and adjourned to Wednesday night, July 18.

To Build Residence. H. M. Hanson, who is employed in the federal building, will begin soon the erection of a modern house on upper Seventh street.

BEAUTY BUBBLES BLOWN BY DAINTY DAME FASHION

"Bubble, bubble, toil and trouble," crowns the old witch.

That young witch, Dame Fashion, must bubble with merriment as she quakes the line and continues to blow her great glittering bubbles to heighten beauty's charms.

Take coiffures, for example. Nothing but toil and trouble this fall for the girl who would be smartly coiffed.

Fashion has thrown a score of style ideas into the air and most of them have burst. There remains no set ways of dressing the hair. Only a few ideas persist to float into popularity.

Coiffures cover the ears. One side or the other of the front hair waves low over one eye or the other. If the face is long or right in the middle of the forehead if the face is round.

Sophisticated coifs are carelessly piled, curled, twisted, coiled and puffed. That is where the toil and trouble comes in. How to achieve that careless look and still be well groomed takes time, study and much experiment.

Just where to adjust one's curls and coils depends altogether on the shape of one's head.

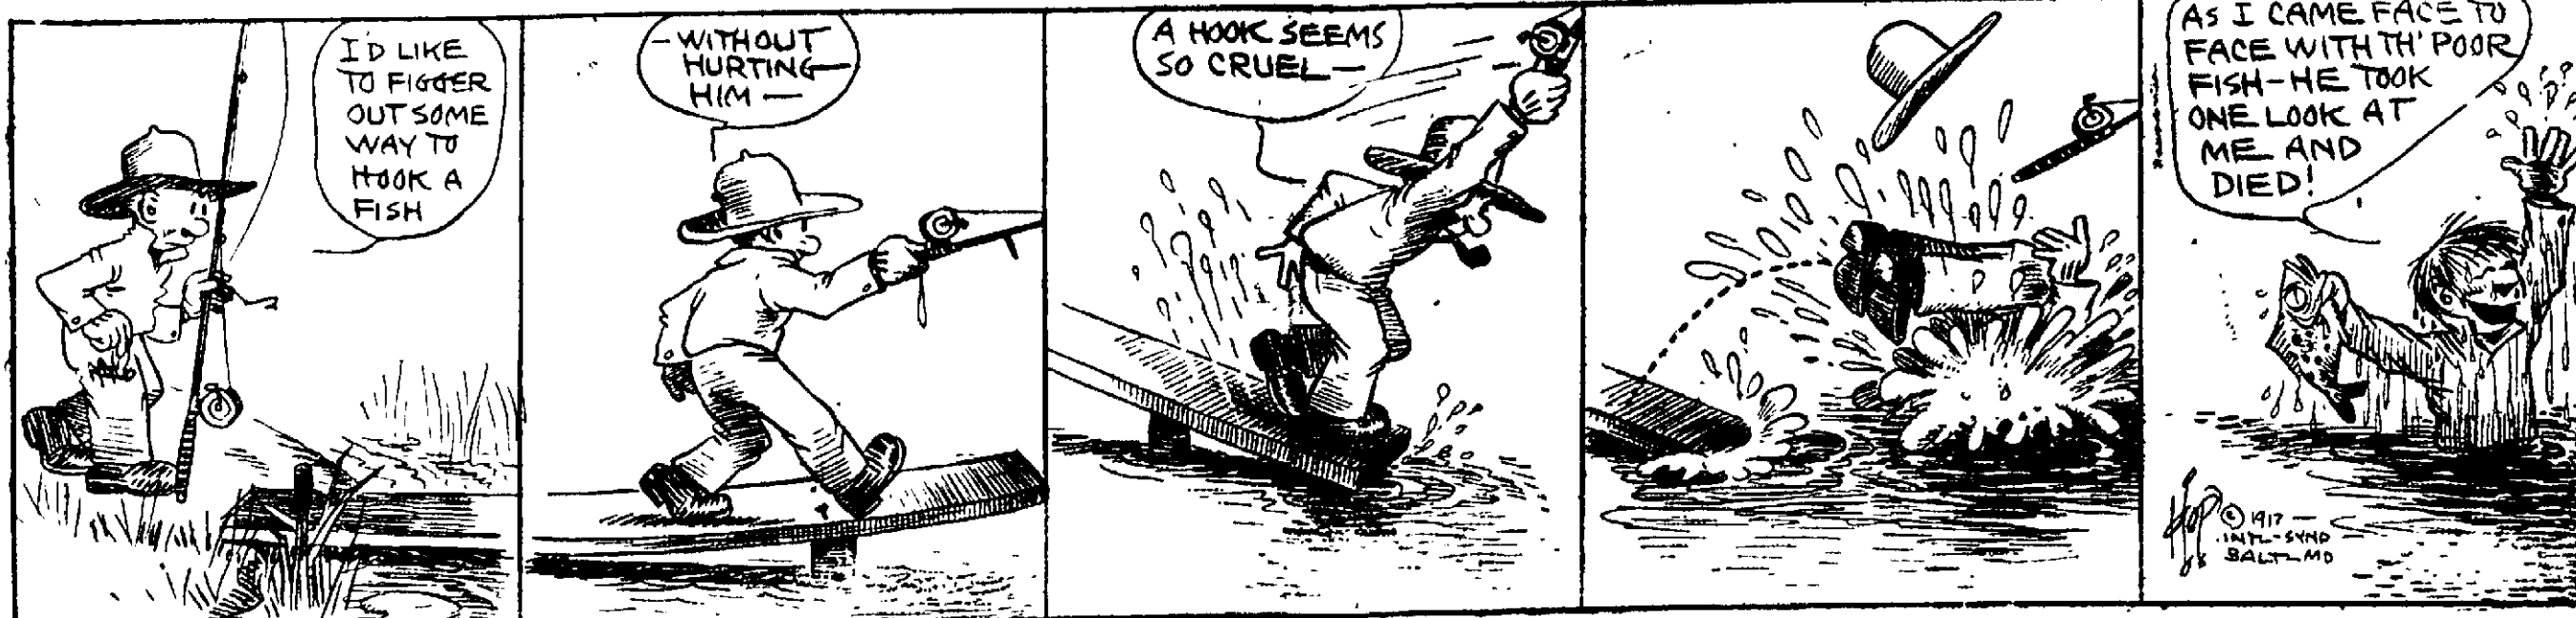

Select your coiffure as you do your hat," says the dainty dame who dominates the boudoir. "Is it becoming?"

That is enough.

Equals Marquard's 19-Game Record; Is After World's Straight-Win Mark

Dallas, Tex., July 17.—Rube Marquard's crown for the consecutive victory record is being disputed and Baxter Sparks' record of 21 consecutive games is in danger of being smashed.

And by a right hander, too! Baxter Sparks climbed to the top by his left arm, when he pitched for the Yazoo, Miss., club and won 21 games in a row in 1904. So did Marquard when he rung up the major league record with 19 consecutive victories for the New York Giants in 1912.

But here comes John "Snipe" Conley, of the Dallas club of the Texas league, and brings home a record to equal, if not surpass, that of Richard. In fact, he claims the record for right handers.

Conley's right hand won him 19 consecutive games this season for the Dallas club, and he is relying on it to hang up a new record for all leagues. Conley came to the Dallas club from the Baltimore Feds while pitching in an exhibition game with the Baltimore club, he fell and injured his pitching arm. For a year he was unable to use an overhand delivery.

Last year he used nothing but a side-arm motion. He is rapidly regaining his overhand delivery, which has brought him much of his success. He is also a spit baller, with a deceiving change of pace.

The Dallas management recently had an offer for Conley from the Philadelphia Americans, but refused it. Dallas is hungry for a pennant and so long as Conley is rushing them toward it at a steady pace, the club doesn't want to lose him.

Nearly all the games won were remarkably close. Four were shutouts.

Conley is a young chap and shows signs of remarkable control and intelligence on the mound. He has self-confidence, but shows he hasn't an overdose of it.

MINOT LOSES BUD FUSNER WHO GOES TO WICHITA TEAM

Star of Magicians Sold by St. Joseph of the Western League Sold to Kansas

Minot, N. D., July 17.—"Bud" Fusner has quit us.

He gave the sign to Manager Brautigan yesterday. But he didn't quit in a huff, for he rather likes this old town in the Northwest, but the bigger company is calling him to come back—back where the players stage football and baseball and where the base runners have no respect for a fellow's shine.

Yes, Fusner, who was the property of the St. Joseph Western League club, has been sold to Wichita of the same circuit and, after playing both games today against the New Rockford aggregation, Fusner will kiss good bye to Minot. He will leave the city Monday and join the Wichita team immediately upon his arrival in that city.

Fusner is the best backstop the Magicians have had this season and the players and fans will regret to see him leave.

Cleveland O. July 17.—Josh Devore, a member of the New York National league club in its championship days, is reported to have entered the milk business in Chillicothe, O., his home town.

Devore was with the Boston Nationals when they won the world's championship in 1914.

AUTOISTS, TAKE NOTICE.

SPORT GOSSIP

Chicago, July 17.—Charles "Chick" Evans, Jr., national amateur and open golf champion, expects to raise $50,000 for the Red Cross by Sept. 1, playing exhibition matches throughout the country. Within the last two months he has raised about $20,000.

Evans is the support of his father and mother, and although registered for military service under the conscription act, hopes to be permitted to remain at home and care for his parents. At the same time he plans to "do his bit" by raising funds for the Red Cross.

Des Moines, Ia., July 17.—Fully recovered from an operation for the removal of his tonsils, Earl Caddock of Anita, Ia., claimant of the world's heavyweight championship, is settling down for a summer's vacation. Caddock believes he needs a complete rest before starting on the winter's campaign.

That the champion is in earnest not to do any wrestling until fall is evidenced by the fact that he refused two offers of $5,000 to wrestle on the Fourth of July. He also has declined other matches which would net him about $20,000.

Caddock said that before he would agree to meet Joe Stetcher, the big Nebraskan, from whom he won the title, in another finish match, Stetcher would have to meet John Olin, the Finn; Ed "Stranger" Lewis and Waldek Zbyszko, the Polish wrestler. Caddock contends that Stetcher failed to throw any of these men.

"It took me two years to get a match with Stetcher, for I was told that I was of unknown quality and it would be necessary for me to go out and wrestle some high class men," Caddock explained. "Now it looks as if Stetcher should clean up some of the wrestlers he failed to defeat before I shall consider him entitled to a return match."

St. Joseph, Mo., July 17.—Between four and five hundred transients, many of them of national reputation, are expected here to participate in the twelfth western handicap tournament of the Interstate association on July 17, 18 and 19.

All parts of the country will be represented in the entries, with the majority, however, from Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois and Oklahoma.

The shoot will be directed by Elmer Shaner of Pittsburgh, manager of the Interstate association, and James L. Head of St. Louis.

Madison, Wis., July 17.—There is a strong probability that John H. Richards, former coach who was a star fullback on the University of Wisconsin team a few years ago, will succeed Dr. Paul Withington as head football coach next fall. Dr. Withington has joined the medical reserve corps.

The gridiron situation in Madison is in doubt. Several of the stars of last year's eleven have enlisted and practically an entire new team will have to be developed.

Richmond, Ind., July 17.—Richmond, which became a member of the Central league last spring, is one of the few minor league cities that is prospering this season. The attendance on Sundays and holidays has exceeded that of the larger cities in the league.

This is the home of Charles Weeghman, president of the Chicago club of the National league, and he is said to have contributed largely to the success of baseball here.

Patrick Donahue, a brother of the famous "Jiggs," is one of the new players signed to strengthen the team. He is a catcher.

Omaha, Neb., July 17.—Tom Dennison of Omaha, a widely known horse man, is disposing of his stable following the announcement of his retirement from active participation in the horse racing game. This is Dennison's third "retirement" in 25 years, but this time, he says it's for good.

Dennison sold Hal McKinney, 206 1/2, one of the most noted pacers in the country to H. E. Ross of Milwaukee, who plans to campaign the horse in the east.

Although injured last winter by a bolt of lightning, Hal McKinney is pacing better than ever this season.

Warning

We are informed that at some cafes, restaurants and gardens beer and strong drinks have been sold under the guise of the popular soft drink, Bevo.

These reports have been confirmed sufficiently to compel us to take action.

The beverage Bevo enjoys the protection of both federal and state authority. In preparing it for sale and in marketing it, we adopt every possible precaution to protect the public against imposition and to prevent evasion of the law. Bevo is sold in bottles only, we bottle all of it ourselves, and we have adopted a kind of bottle, crown and seals designed to prevent imitation.

We shall omit no measure within our power to defend the authority under which Bevo is manufactured and sold, to protect the public from imposition, and to safeguard the good name of this Association.

We therefore give fair warning that we shall refuse to sell our products to those who are found guilty of the above offense.

BASEBALL STORIES

A doubleheader in the capital city is a warning, not an attraction.

Johnny Evers is in the game, but he is not playing like the Trojan of old.

There is many a pitching corps that should be spelled with an "e" on the end.

The Yankees are not out of the running for the American league pennant by any means.

Haven't had much rain in Washington this season, and they haven't had much baseball.

Pittsburgh critics are hailing Jake Pitts as the best double-play starter in the big show.

Rube Schauer and Ping Bodie are showing up well under the management of Connie Mack.

Red Sox made nine runs in one inning the other day. Still they call the Sox a weak-hitting team.

Cincinnati won a ball game from New York, which shows that the day of miracles has not passed.

Pat Moran still says that Niehoff of the Phillies, is the best second baseman in the National league.

Conscription can do a lot of the tennis some good if any of the regulars come within the drafting age.

And some of the American league tail enders seem to think it is plucky they are playing, not baseball.

Watching the ticker from Shibe park is getting almost as exciting as unfolding the contents of a cream puff.

Even a good right-handed pitcher can't undo all the harm perpetrated by a team of left-handed thinkers.

Crane, the Washington shortstop, is kept on the team because the fans at home have sored on George McBride.

There is some talk about giving the Washington franchise to some other city. Question is, "Who would want it?"

The Pirates have gone to the Poles for recruits. Joseph Kowalski, a right-handed pitcher, who has been physical director with St. Mary's college, is the new man.

Happy Felsch has not been hitting the ball as well this year as he did last summer, but it is a little early for the Milwaukee German to get in his best wallop.

BARGER IS MANAGER AGAIN
Pitcher is Seventh Leader Team Has Had Since Mike Finn Piloted That Organization.

Pitcher Ezra Barger, who acted as manager of the Memphis team in the latter part of 1916, when George Moriarity was stricken with a fever, is back on the job again, having been put in charge of the team after Mike Donlin quit last week. Barger is the seventh manager the Chicks have had since the 1914 season, when Mike Finn piloted the team. Bris Lord started in 1915. Dolly Stark started in 1916, and Donlin started 1917. Lord was the only one to last a full season. Moriarity succeeded Stark in mid-season. Barger succeeded Moriarity. Donlin succeeded Barger, and now it is Barger again until another change is made.

"I don't see anything funny about you, Mr. Githers," said little Tommy Twobble.

"I hope I'm not peculiar, Tommy. Why do you say that?"

"Maybe I'd rather not mind." "Oh, go ahead. Don't mind me." "Well, ma said she thought you were a fish, but pa said, 'That just shows how little you know about Githers. He's a regular beaurant.'"

SALVATION ARMY CAPTAIN LEAVES FOR BIGGER JOB

Captain James Murphy to Have Charge of Sioux Falls, S. D.,
Work—Is Bandman

TO BE SUCCEEDED
BY MINNEAPOLIS MAN

Capt. James Murphy of the Salvation Army and his family will leave tomorrow for Duluth, Minn., to spend ten days with his parents and thence to Sioux Falls, S. D., where they will make their new home.

Captain Murphy came to Bismarck a year ago and, it is believed, has done more in Salvation Army work here than any other officer this post has ever had. He will be succeeded by Captain Ernest Marshall of Minneapolis, son of Colonel Marshall of the Salvation Army.

Captain Murphy is the man who organized the Salvation Army band in Superior, Wis., now one of the largest and best bands in that whole section of the country. Later, in Minneapolis, he put the band on its feet, after it had repeatedly failed, and made it a permanent institution. When he came to Bismarck there was no Army band. The outlook was discouraging, because not a member could blow a horn and very few could tell one note from another. Now Bismarck has again the best Salvation Army band in the state, if not the Northwest. It plays regularly on the streets, marches to martial music in parades and often appears in concerts and entertainments. Its progress in less than a year is little short of remarkable. The horns were purchased soon after Captain Murphy came here with money raised through the generosity of Bismarck business men.

In sending Captain Murphy to South Dakota, the commissioner at Chicago, who personally gave the order, said that he did so because Sioux Falls needed Murphy. The work there is bigger, and the need greater than here. The appointment is in the way of a promotion.

A musical entertainment and farewell reception will be given this evening at the Army hall on Main street for Captain and Mrs. Murphy and their two children. The family came here from Devil Lake in July, 1916. Captain Murphy is a quiet, unassuming man, about 35, but, as one of the members of it today, he "gets there." He has been in Salvation Army work since he was 9 years old and has been a band director for many years. The man who will take his place is a cornetist of ability and it is hoped he will continue the great work that has been started by Captain Murphy.

Stars and Stripes on the Front in France

The Tribune on a recent date scored the first great scoop of the war in its exclusive publication of the first picture of American troops at the front in France—the picture being sent by its London correspondent, Kenneth Payne. Other pictures of the same troops are now beginning to arrive in this country, two of the most interesting being shown above. In the top photo, the first contingent of American fighters is shown at attention as the United States flag is carried down the line. Note the heavy forest in which the American camp is laid—the same forest that appeared as the background in Payne's picture. In the lower photo an American Sammy and a French poilu are clasping hands under the intertwined French and American flags at the point where the lines of the two republics meet.

NEW INDUSTRY FOR BISMARCK

Becomes District Headquarters of the Waterman Motor Company of Detroit

Bismarck is to be the headquarters of another industry in recognition of its advantages as a distributing center. A. L. Costello of Detroit, Mich., has just rented the space in the Hughes block formerly occupied by Klein, as the state headquarters of the Waterman Motor company.

Mr. Costello has the agency for 10 counties in Minnesota—All of North Dakota and one-half of Montana. This company manufactures the Uni-Electric light plant for farms and towns not having a central plant. Four salesmen will work out of Bismarck. In the same office will be the state headquarters for the General Gas Electric company of Hanover, Pa.

This is a storage battery system for lighting. F. C. Schultze will have charge of this company's business in this territory. Equipment will arrive in a week or 10 days and the local headquarters expect to be doing business within that time.

Shipping Association.
The recently organized Equality Livestock Shipping association of Ray incorporated today as a non-profit-making institution, with A. E. Nehring, Fred C. Lamb, Fred Yule, O. L. Alspach and O. A. Linstad as directors.

AUTO FASHION SHOW WINNERS.
Katherine and Jane Lee, the diminutive screen stars, in a special Willys-Knight eight-cylinder sport touring car were awarded the first prize at the Automobile Fashion Show at Sheephead Bay, held under the auspices of the Actors' Fund of America. For this event, Katherine was tastefully arrayed in a miniature Red Cross nurse's uniform and Jane in an army officer's accoutrements. The winners were given first prize, which consisted of a blue ribbon for the car and a $200 Liberty bond for themselves.

BENTON PACKET CO. AFFECTED BY NEW DISTANCE TARIFF

Old Switching Rate Cancelled by Northern Pacific Under Authority of Statute

Because the new distance tariff act provides that all freight rates must be based on actual mileage, the Northern Pacific has revoked a local switching rate of $10.50 per car from the Benton Packet company docks to the Soo line connections and has advised the packet company that new rates for switching will be made on a sliding scale in accordance with the Cashman law.

On many connecting lines mean an important increase in switching charges, and Capt. I. R. Baker, president of the Benton Packet company, will appear before the state railway commission tomorrow with a petition praying relief from alleged exorbitant charges.

WILLYS-OVERLAND SALES PASS $11,000,000

During the month of June, 1917, all retail sales of Willys-Overland, Inc. were broken. The retail business for that period amounted to approximately $11,150,000, the greatest record for any month in Willys-Overland history.

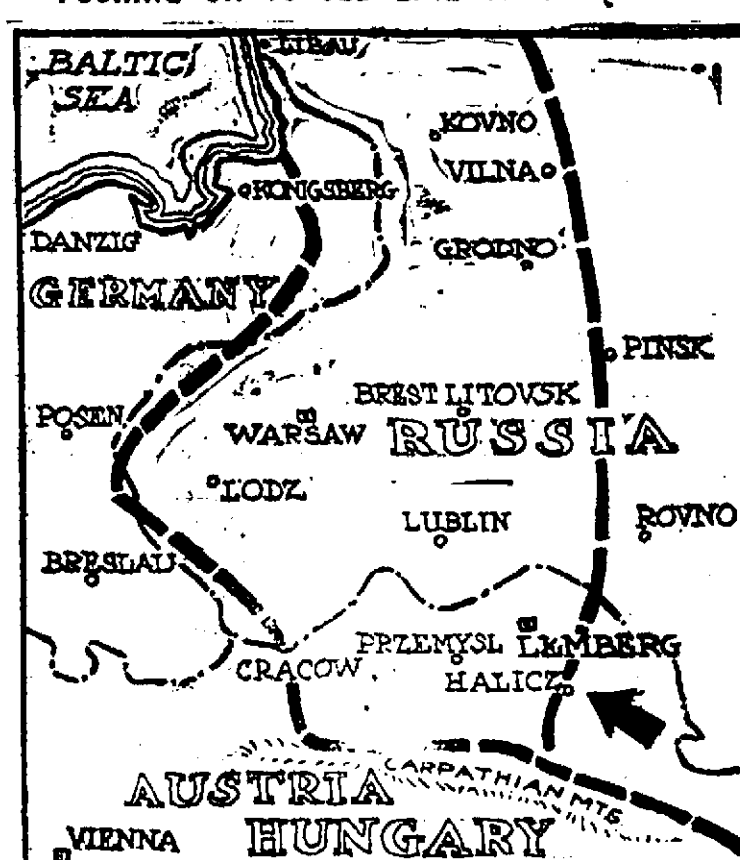

These figures are for the United States alone and do not include Canadian nor export sales, which are also heavier than ever; nor has allowance been made for the 10 per cent of the reports that past experiences prove are not sent in to the home office.

On Monday, June 25, reports of the sales of 1917 cars at retail reached this company, $11,150,000 worth, a new high mark for a single day in Willys-Overland history.

During the first two weeks in June the daily sales averaged about $400,000. During the week of June 17 the retail sales climbed to a daily average of about $450,000.

From June 25 to June 30 the United States' automobile buyers paid more than half a million dollars daily for their Willys-Overland cars.

Al. G. Barnes' Circus

Has Four Rings. Entire Program Made Up of Performing Wild and Domestic Animals.

When one remembers and speaks of being entertained by old time circuses, it is the proper thing to nod wisely and conjure up riots of color, blaring horns, acrobatic stunts, jugglers, wire-walkers, talking clowns, bare-back riders, all the motion expressed by commotion, and a general air of restlessness that heretofore passed as exciting at least. For then it was easy to become enthusiastic over the pretty sequestered and clown vagaries.

But all this has changed. This is the serious age, the scientific age, one of skill, novelty and efficiency in all forms of modern expression. No longer does the hurdy-gurdy of old circusdom please. It is the things new and educational that people demand. That is why the Al G. Barnes big four-ring wild animal circus draws such great crowds, why schools close for them and why business organizations recognize the merit and value of such a tremendous institution rightly reaches here Saturday, July 21, for a one-day exhibit, you will see reflected in it the spirit of the times, over 1,000 wild and domestic animals are seen in 65 feature acts, offering a program full of slip and pop of the most modern and effective value.

Any one of the numerous attractions will be more than worth the time and money. The grand spectacular pageant entry, featuring the "Conquests of Vienna," the greatest jungle land in the world. The hundreds of highly educated horses and ponies. Elephants that startle and amaze with their wonderful sense of humor. Monkeys and dogs in trapeze and equestrian feats. Seals and sea lions in astounding balancing acts. Lions, tigers, pumas and many other of the cat tribe, featured in action, with each other and domestic animals. "Samson," the only lion in the world who makes a spurring fire fountain of himself and trainer, a fair, fearless girl. Performing camels, llamas and sebras that are to be seen nowhere else in all the world. While Miss Vera Earle, with her dancing horse, musical pig-ions, know the world over as the prima donna of the "white tops," gives a finish to a program of purest gold.

The Barnes circus will begin the day's festivities with a two-mile long parade at 10:30 a. m. Doors open 1 and 7 p. m. Performances at 2 and 8 p. m.
